Dynamite Discipline Strategies for Managing Any Group of Children (DVD)

(approx. 30 minutes; #95)

Watch Renée and Todd Ellison demonstrate the tips she describes in the second half of the No Monkey Business booklet.

Hilarious and power-packed! Each “discipline-how-to” is demonstrated incorrectly by a funny man named Mr. Wrong and then is re-done the right way by a different teacher. Useful for leading any homeschool co-op class, field trip, Sunday school, camping trip, or 4-H class. Learn 39 discipline strategies to manage any group.

After viewing this, you'll be able to easily and confidently handle any group of children. Because the children will be in the palm of your hand, under control, they will really LIKE you, and you'll actually get to move on to LEARNING something together!

All techniques on the DVD are demonstrated with a real theater/movement class, but the principles can be used anywhere. This is a bag of management how-to's you'll never want to be without. Get this DVD and you'll soon find yourself an expert at children/group management, far less exhausted and loved by the children you manage.
